Joseph B. Koke, the well-known newsdealer, who visited every politing-piace early in the day, said: "It looks as it the entire Democratic ticket, would be elected. There are nearly 4.000 voters registered. The polis close at to o'clock to-night. The Problibitionists have a full ticket in the field headed by Clarence M. Lyons for Mayor."

Interest is centred in the Democratic and Republican tickets, which are as follows:

For Mayor—John Berry, Democratic Alward F. Brash, houshican.

For City Judge George C. Appett, Democratic Edgar K. Brown, Republican.

For Supersiant—George H. Behrmann (Dem...)
